

Why a student must take up research:

- The student has an opportunity to co-author a researched mini-thesis while he/she is pursuing the undergraduate/postgraduate studies.
- The discipline and perseverance involved in the research work will stand them in good stead for their life and career.
- It will enhance their chances of getting a full scholarship for further studies in the premier universities in the world.
- While competing in the job market with others, the research student will have a clear advantage over the others.
- The student would be able to test his/her own intellectual caliber against the best theories in the world.
- The student will be able to contribute to nation building.
- The student will develop his/her leadership skills and learn teamwork and collaboration.
